Answers to Friday's Quiz Questions (out of 10)

ANZAC DAY Quiz <https://nzhistory.govt.nz/media/interactive/anzac-day-test>

1. Anzac Day is held on:
25 April

Anzac Day is held on 25 April, the date of the first ANZAC landings in 1915.

2. ANZAC stands for:
Australian and New Zealand Army Corps

The Australian and New Zealand Army Corps was formed in December 2014 and made its operational debut on 25 April 1915.

3. Anzac relates to New Zealand soldiers participating in a battle at:
Gallipoli

ANZAC Day commemorates the Gallipoli campaign – the first major battle fought by New Zealand troops in World War I.

4. The first Anzac Day commemoration occurred in:
1916

Large crowds attended the first commemorations – 2000 at the service in Rotorua, and in London, a procession of 2000 Australian and New Zealand troops and a service at Westminster Abbey.

5. A symbol commonly associated with Anzac Day is:
A red poppy

The association of the red poppy – the Flanders poppy – with battlefield deaths as a natural symbol of resurrection and remembrance derives from the fact that the poppy was the first plant to grow in the churned up soil of soldier's graves in the area of Flanders during the First World War.

6. The Allied forces were at Gallipoli as part of a plan to control which strategic waterway?
The Dardanelles

By opening the Dardanelles to their fleets, the Allies hoped to threaten the Ottoman capital, Constantinople (now Istanbul) and knock the Turks out of the war.

7. Lieutenant-Colonel William George Malone commanded which unit at Gallipoli?
The Wellington Battalion

Malone commanded the Wellington Battalion which played a major part in seizing the important summit of Chunuk Bair, though Turkish Reserves were soon to retake this strategic summit.

8. Who led the Turkish counter-attack at Chunuk Bair?
Mustafa Kemal Atatürk

Mustafa Kernal Bey led the Turks at Gallipoli and eventually, as Kernal Atatürk became the founding President of the Turkish Republic.

9. Where was the main Allied landing on the Gallipoli peninsula on 25 April?
Cape Helles

The main Allied landing on the Gallipoli peninsula was at Cape Helles. Unlike the landing at Anzac Cove, this was successful, but the way northwards was soon barred by hastily summoned Turkish reinforcements.

10. What battle site at Gallipoli did Brigadier-General Andrew Russell, commander of the New Zealand Mounted Rifles Brigade, refer to as 'an abominable little hill'?
Hill 60

Hill 60 was the site of a number of unsuccessful attacks by units of the New Zealand Mounted Rifles Brigade in August 1915.
